

Sts. Peter & Paul are celebrated 6/29/17

Peter and Paul are often seen in the Church as a complementary pair. Peter represents the institutional church, while Paul represents the charismatic or spiritual church. Both are associated with the church in Rome. But what binds them together, above all, is that they were utterly seized by Jesus' message.

On June 29 the Church celebrates their feast day. As early as the year 258, there is evidence of an already lengthy tradition of celebrating the solemnities of both Saint Peter and Saint Paul on the same day. Together, the two saints are the founders of the See of Rome, through their preaching, ministry and martyrdom there.

Peter, who was named Simon, was a fisherman of Galilee and was introduced to the Lord Jesus by his brother Andrew, also a fisherman. Jesus gave him the name Cephas (Petrus in Latin), which means 'Rock,' because he was to become the rock upon which Christ would build His Church.

St. Paul was the Apostle of the Gentiles. His letters are included in the writings of the New Testament, and through them we learn much about his life and the faith of the early Church. Before receiving the name Paul, he was Saul, a Jewish Pharisee who zealously persecuted Christians in Jerusalem.

In a sermon written in 395, St. Augustine of Hippo said of Sts. Peter and Paul: "Both apostles share the same feast day, for these two were one; and even though they suffered on different days, they were as one. Peter went first, and Paul followed. And so we celebrate this day made holy for us by the apostles' blood. Let us embrace what they believed, their life, their labors, their sufferings, their preaching, and their confession of faith."

Questions for the Road or Way Home

"Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul . . ." --- Matt. 10:28

The author continues the Jesus' instruction to the apostles he is sending out to spread the Good News. Over the years, martyrs truly lived this gospel. Their human fear of bodily harm did not govern their lives. The Lord's love for us is so deep. In return for this incredible gift of loving care, we are simply asked to fear not, to trust, and to acknowledge before the world that our God is the God of love.

- Do I think of myself as a courageous disciple for Christ? Why or why not?
- Since life is so precious to us, how can we "not be afraid of those who kill the body"?

Pope Francis on Corpus Christi

Only 27% of parishioners come to church regularly. What father would not be seriously alarmed if one of his children stopped eating? Yet Jesus says that without the Eucharist we will starve and die spiritually -- "Unless . . ."

Remembrance is a key word we find in all writings in the Bible about the Eucharist. As you come to communion be grateful and have present in mind all that Lord has done for you. Don't just kneel or stand there forgetting. Be conscious.

Sacred Heart---"Congratulations to Allison (Dostal) and Trevor Webster, who were married in Minneapolis on June 10th".

Potato Salad for the Fair Food Booth (SH)

- For the last 5 years a group has been coming together to make the potato salad that, along with pies, had been traditionally made or baked by the parishioners for many years in the past.

- It is a bit of work but it is a joy to work together and not everyone is able to work at the food booth itself. Judy Hanson has supervised this over the five years, but she is not able to do it this year. So, we are looking for someone willing to take the lead, and for persons who would be willing to be helpers on this project. It takes 3-4 hours to prepare the potato salad (including clean-up) for each of the four days of the fair. Last year, we made enough on the third day to cover the last two days of the fair. If you are interested, in leading or helping, call the parish office by Wed. evening (June 26) of this week. Parish office: 463-2441 or if you have questions, call Judy Hanson (218-469-1575).

Mary, Prophet and Star of the New Evangelization

Bishop Scott McCaig discussed how, "just as dawn reveals exactly where the sun will rise, Mary points us perfectly to Jesus."

He clarified that devotions to Mary and the Holy Spirit are not separate: "St. Louis deMontfort said, 'When the Holy Spirit recognizes Mary in a soul, He flies to that soul.'"

"Being fully Catholic means being Marian and being filled with the Holy Spirit— just like she is," he said. "How completely she abandons herself to God, without reserve! At Christ's death, she is magnanimous, giving up her only treasure, for love of us."

"To believers: Sacrifice yourself for sinners. Pray for healing, but if that cup of suffering does not pass you by, use it, don't waste it," he added. "We're the mystical body— it's through us that the message of beauty, joy and salvation can be communicated to the world."

Adult Faith Formation/Faith Sharing Groups

ALTARATION: We will NOT be meeting 7/2/17. Have a safe 4th of July and pray for our FREE-DOM. Join us on 7/9/17 at 9:00am at SH.

Weekly Challenge: invite a friend or family member to attend Mass with you. If the person accepts, be sure to be a good example. If the person declines your invitation, pray for him or her during Mass. Invite them again later.

Next on AltARATION: The "whys" behind the "whats"

"The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ?"
-Corinthians 10:16-17

Consumption goes beyond our bellies. It includes media and information too. Consume is from a Latin term: con "together" sumere "taken up". When you attend Mass, and receive the Eucharist be consumed by God. Go share your experience with others the wonderful gift you have received.

Special Collection for Retired Priests

All proceeds taken are used for the health insurance premiums unreimbursed medical expenses, and other health care expenses of our retired priests. Our retired priests continue to give to our diocese as a substitute and good shepherds. Thank you

We are Catholics. We are Americans. We are proud to be both, grateful for the gift of faith which is ours as Christian disciples, and grateful for the gift of liberty which is ours as American citizens. To be Catholic and American should mean not having to choose one over the other. Our allegiances are distinct, but they need not be contradictory, and should instead be complementary. That is the teaching of our Catholic faith, which obliges us to work together with fellow citizens for the common good of all who live in this land. That is the vision of our founding and our Constitution, which guarantees citizens of all religious faiths the right to contribute to our common life together. —United States Conference of Catholic Bishops Ad Hoc Committee for Religious Liberty, April 12, 2012

We will be doing a good cleaning at the fair stand Sunday, July 9th at 5:30 pm. The sign-up sheets will be out this weekend for the daily shift help starting Tuesday, July 18th through Friday, July 21st. Stop in and sign up.

Gus will be out on vacation that week so we are looking for someone to coordinate the start-up in the mornings. It would be ideal to have one person that can be there each day but if you can only support one day that is just fine. All help is greatly appreciated.
